HOW DOES THE PARKING BADGE WORK?

The parking badge

It enables residents, shopkeepers and companies to be exempt from parking restrictions in parking badge zones (except on police order).

Who is entitled to a parking badge?

According to Article 7B, character a RaLCR, M1 category passenger cars weighing less than 3.5 tons and with a maximum height of 2 meters are eligible for the issuance of a badge.

“Resident” parking badge: each resident can purchase 1 parking badge per car registered with Geneva plates, in their name and address within the zone, provided they do not rent or own a parking space in the residential zone and adjacent areas.

“Business” parking badge: motor vehicles registered under the name of an entity with premises within the sector, which are necessary frequently and regularly for the conduct of professional activities and primarily used for that purpose. These motor vehicles should not be used for commuting between home and work. If the entity has parking spaces (excluding visitor spaces), it can only apply for a parking badge if all spaces are occupied by motor vehicles also registered under the entity’s name and essential for conducting professional activities.

Where to use the parking badge

The parking badge may be used in the badge zone 18B in parking spaces indicated by a display similar to the one shown below.

The parking badge may not be used in zones indicated by a display as shown below, or in other badge zones, or conventional parking zones.
